Self-Service Order Point Kiosk 21.5"

Overview

With the self-service order automated Kiosk, your guests can order at their own pace and build their meals the way they want without needing to ask for assistance. Because your staff no longer need to concentrate on taking orders, they'll be free to improve the overall customer's experience. The Kiosk makes ordering easier and freeing up time for employees to focus on other tasks like boosting sales. Our order kiosk system can improve your efficiencies and operations dramatically. The order Kiosk can prompt your guests with upselling opportunities they might not have known were available.
